MSS 729 STRODE Family Collection

1 box. 13 folders. 102 items. 1800-1989. Originals, photocopies.

SC2021.59.1

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists of papers of the Strode family of Monroe County, Kentucky, principally the descendants of William Strode (1794-1857) and his wife Elizabeth (Mohan) Strode (b. 1803). One of their eleven children, James William "Kink" Strode (1833-1908) was a Civil War veteran, farmer and storekeeper. Among the offices he held was postmaster at the Rock Bridge and Strode post offices.

The collection includes deeds recording transfers between William Strode's descendants of lands inherited from him. Also of interest is a petition (Folder 8) opposing the removal of the Rock Bridge post office from James W. Strode's store. Some of the documents in this collection may not relate specifically to the Strode family, as James W. Strode kept a store safe in which members of the community deposited documents for safekeeping.
